CARROLL COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

VOL. 10.—NO 2. HUNTINGDON TENN., FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 1897. $1.00 PER. YEAR

Pioneer in Journalism.

The pencil badge of Bond Jenkins, editor of the Memphis Appeal, bears the words "Appeal-Avalanche" in the date and the number of years of publication of which he is proud. Mr. Jenkins is a pioneer in journalism. W. F. Trezevant, D. D. Wynne, of Huntingdon, T. C. Burton, of Trenton, and Mr. Jenkins, all editors, are attending Polk's funeral.

Dog-wholesale.

A. J. Cooper, of Hyde, Mo., and Silas Hill Clark, of the Osage Nation, I. T., have just closed a deal involving nothing of so costly interest as a dog, but a dog of such extraordinary value that he is the talk of the town. Mr. Cooper's celebrated fox hound, Ben Hardin, was sold to Mr. Clark for the handsome consideration of $1,000. Mr. Clark is a lover of fine dogs, and has a number of the finest of the Southwest's celebrated hound kennels.

A Needful Death.

David Allen, an old and well-known citizen of Bedford county, died at his home near Shelbyville of heart disease, with which he had been afflicted for a number of years. He was 70 years of age, and was a native of Virginia. He was a brother of Mrs. Dr. Bell, of Shelbyville, and was a cousin of Gen. Bell, of Nashville. This makes the fourth death in the family of Mrs. Bell within a few months.

Big Bonds of a Murderer.

Sheriff Hall, of Lincoln county, arrived in Fayetteville with Jack Lancaster, who is charged with the murder of Jim Lancaster, his father, in that county last fall. Lancaster will be tried at the January term of the circuit court, and will be defended by Hon. Ben Hall. Several hundred dollars have been raised by friends of the accused to defend him, and a purse of $1,000 is now being made up for the prosecution.

Shot Himself Dead.

News was received here this week of the death of Jesse Hall, who shot himself several hours after the killing of Jim Lancaster, in Lincoln county. Hall fled to the neighborhood of Mulberry, Franklin county, and was found dead in the woods. Guns and friends here in sympathy with Hall say that he was not guilty. Hall was about 25 years old, and was well-known young lady. The killing grew out of a quarrel over Mr. Mr. Hall's conducting that Conduct Wilfully.

Mr. J. D. Cooker and Miss Mary Hall, a young lady of this city, were married in the parlors of the Commercial Hotel, Rev. Mr. Wilson officiating. They left immediately after the ceremony for Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. Cooker, Miss Hallie Hall, and wife accompanying them. Mr. Cooker is a young man of excellent character. The happy couple will remain in Memphis for a few days, and then return to this city, where they will begin housekeeping.—Jackson Sun.

Jesse Lawrence Dead.

The Christiana Chronicle sadly announces the death of Jesse Lawrence, which occurred at the home of his father, on the first Thursday of the present month. He had been afflicted with consumption for about a year, and for two days before his death he was unconscious. Jesse was a boy of sterling worth of character, and was a favorite with all who knew him. He was a member of the Methodist church, and died in the full assurance of a blessed hope. His death is a sad loss to the family, and the community in which he lived, and the sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved. The funeral was conducted on Friday by Rev. Mr. Hall, and the remains were interred in the family burying ground, where rest the remains of his mother, who died a few years before.—Ex.

Burglars' Work.

The burglars have been at work again. Mr. Wallace's store was entered last night and about $25 worth of goods taken. Mr. Wallace's safe was also broken open, but as there was no money at it there was nothing taken from it. Mr. Wallace has offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties. Mr. Wallace's store was also broken into a few days ago, but nothing was taken on that occasion.—Ex.

Dishonest Jailbirds.

W. L. Scott was in Nashville the latter part of last week, and while there got a requisition from Governor Turney on the sheriff of this county for the arrest of Jailbirds Bell and Scott, charged with having escaped from the county jail. It is said that a requisition was issued for Bell's arrest some months ago, but was not served on account of his failure to put in an appearance. Bell was arrested and gave a bond for his appearance, but failed to appear, and the bond was forfeited. The sheriff has been notified that a requisition was issued for Scott's arrest, and he will be arrested and sent to Nashville.—Ex.

Sam Tarrant Dead.

The death occurred yesterday morning at 8 o'clock of Sam Tarrant, colored, after a long and painful illness. The deceased was a well-known character in this city, and is a pitiful body. It was only a few months ago that he was pensioned by Commissioner Peck, and drawing $12 per month. Sam was a soldier in the war, and was a servant of Gen. Forrest after being slightly wounded at the battle of Fort Pillow.—Memphis Appeal.

Tilly Banks of a Murderer.

Sheriff Hall, of Lincoln county, arrived in Fayetteville with Jack Lancaster, who is charged with the murder of Jim Lancaster, his father, in that county last fall. Lancaster will be tried at the January term of the circuit court, and will be defended by Hon. Ben Hall. Several hundred dollars have been raised by friends of the accused to defend him, and a purse of $1,000 is now being made up for the prosecution. The murder of the holding is to be investigated by the grand jury of this county during the present week.

Little Locals.

No Wash's Guarantee Pat Is Cost Type.

Remedy of Extra Strength and Recommendation.

A. F. Shaw, of Dresden, was here on business.

There was a dance at the Dunn House last Monday night.

Mrs. Mollie Hall is visiting Mrs. Mollie Hall, of Dresden.

Died the splendid assortment of Christmas goods at Hall's Drug Store.

Dear Reader and Christmas-like Hall's Drug Store has a nice line of Christmas goods.

A. F. Beasley has purchased of J. C. Hall the residence on Church street.

W. M. Green and R. R. Warren, Esq., left Monday to attend the Polk funeral.

All the people have had is time to get their new suits and have made to last each week.

Mrs. Mollie Hall has moved from the south end of Church street to the residence of Mrs. Hall, on the north side of the square.

Mrs. Mollie Hall has taken charge of the millinery department of Hall's Drug Store, and is now ready for business.

Mrs. Mollie Hall has moved from the south end of Church street to the residence of Mrs. Hall, on the north side of the square.

Mrs. Mollie Hall has taken charge of the millinery department of Hall's Drug Store, and is now ready for business.

Mrs. Wallace, of Kentucky, arrived last week to visit her son, Mr. Wallace, and Louisville police are looking for her daughter.

Miss Mollie Hall has taken charge of the millinery department of Hall's Drug Store, and is now ready for business.

Miss Estelle Ridgeway, a trained nurse, left Monday for Paris, Ky., to attend a case. She has been successfully employed and will be missed by a host of friends.

Judge Jno. Allen and Mr. Jno. C. McCall were registered at the Commercial Hotel last Monday, and were seen on the streets during the day.

Just remember this week is the time to get your Christmas goods, as we mean a great deal of nothing to you after Christmas. Hall's Drug Store.

Rev. R. J. Wills, pastor of the M. E. church, South, at this place, has been appointed by the Conference to Trenton, and left on 1st inst. for Trenton.

The entertainment given last Friday night at the Jackson hall was a success, and the proceeds, which amounted to $20, will be used in purchasing a new carpet for the hall.

The Table Mirror, of Clarksville, Tenn., is a new publication, and is a neatly printed, well-edited, and should receive the support of the people of Clarksville.

Mr. Pulliam, of Paris, Tennessee, was in the city last week. He is a brother of Mrs. Dr. Bell, of Shelbyville, and was on his way to Nashville to attend the funeral of Mr. Polk.

Mrs. Mollie Hall has moved from the south end of Church street to the residence of Mrs. Hall, on the north side of the square.

Mrs. Mollie Hall has taken charge of the millinery department of Hall's Drug Store, and is now ready for business

Carroll County Democrat.
HUNTINGDON PUBLISHING CO., Publishers.
HUNTINGDON - - TENNESSEE.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Senate Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Senate, by 39 to 27, a vote commencing shortly before 2 o'clock this morning, passed the bill to restore to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company such lands now held by the United States as were granted to that company by the act of 1866.

Notice of action was given by the Committee on Public Lands to-day of a bill to provide for the settlement of the Utah Indians on lands now held by the United States for their benefit.

Notice of action was given by the Committee on Public Lands to-day of a bill to provide for the settlement of the Utah Indians on lands now held by the United States for their benefit.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The House to-day passed the bill to provide for the payment of the claims of the Choctaw Indians against the United States for depredations committed by citizens of the United States in connection with the Choctaw Indian war of 1865-66.

Bills were introduced and referred as follows: By Mr. Hiscock, to provide for the payment of the claims of the Choctaw Indians against the United States for depredations committed by citizens of the United States in connection with the Choctaw Indian war of 1865-66. By Mr. Hiscock, to provide for the payment of the claims of the Choctaw Indians against the United States for depredations committed by citizens of the United States in connection with the Choctaw Indian war of 1865-66. By Mr. Hiscock, to provide for the payment of the claims of the Choctaw Indians against the United States for depredations committed by citizens of the United States in connection with the Choctaw Indian war of 1865-66.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Ben Hill Dead.

ATLANTA, March 1.—Benjamin H. Hill died at his residence in this city at 2:30 o'clock this morning. He had been confined to his bed for several days with pneumonia, and his death was not unexpected. He was born in Jasper county, Georgia, February 14, 1823, and was therefore in the fifty-first year of his age. He graduated at the University of Georgia, and began the practice of law in Jasper county, removing to Macon in 1847. He was elected to the Legislature in 1851, and was a member of the Secession Convention in 1861. He was elected to the Confederate Congress in 1862, and was a member of that body until the close of the war. He was elected to the United States Senate in 1877, and was re-elected in 1882. He was appointed Secretary of the Interior by President Cleveland in 1885, and was a member of the Cabinet when he died.

Fatal Fire.

CHICAGO, March 1.—The fire which broke out in the Lake Shore Elevator, at the foot of Chicago avenue, at 1:30 o'clock this morning, destroyed the entire building, with its contents, and also damaged the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Company's elevator to the extent of $10,000. The Lake Shore Elevator was owned by the Lake Shore Railroad Company, and was valued at $200,000. It was filled with grain, which is alleged, but contested and not proven, to be insured.

Later reports say that the fire-proof walls of the elevator will remain standing, and that the loss will not exceed $100,000.

Fatal Explosion.

LOUISVILLE, March 1.—A special to the Courier-Journal from Hopkinsville, Ky., says: Another explosion occurred at the Hopkinsville powder mill this morning, by which one man was killed and several others injured. The dead man's name could not be learned.

Death of Mrs. Thomas A. Hendricks.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 1.—Mrs. Hendricks, wife of Senator Thomas A. Hendricks, died at her residence on this city at 11:45 o'clock this morning. She was 71 years old, and has been in declining health for several years. Mrs. Hendricks was a daughter of Gen. John Morris, and was married July 4, 1845. She was a native of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Death of Gen. Thomas A. Morris.

CINCINNATI, March 1.—Gen. Thomas A. Morris, brother of Senator Morris, died at his residence in this city this morning, aged 77 years. He was a graduate of West Point, and was a brigadier-general in the Mexican war. He was also a member of the Legislature in 1844-45, and was elected to Congress from the Cincinnati district in 1848, but was defeated for re-election in 1850. He was appointed Governor of Washington Territory by President Pierce in 1853, but declined the office.

Death of Gen. Joseph Hooker.

GARDNER, March 1.—Gen. Joseph Hooker died at his residence in this city this morning, aged 63 years. He was born in Hadley, Mass., November 13, 1814, graduated at West Point in 1837, and served in the Florida war. He was brevetted major for gallantry in the battle of Chapultepec, during the Mexican war, and was also brevetted lieutenant-colonel for gallantry in the battle of Molino del Rey. He resigned from the army in 1853, and engaged in farming in California. He was appointed brigadier-general of volunteers in 1861, and was promoted major-general in 1862. He was in command of the Army of the Potomac from January 26 to June 28, 1863, when he was relieved by Gen. Meade. He was in command of the Twelfth Army Corps in the battles of Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge, and was in command of the Department of the East from 1865 to 1868, when he resigned from the army.

Death of Gen. Thomas Ewing.

LANCASTER, O., March 1.—Gen. Thomas Ewing died at his residence in this city at 2:30 o'clock this morning, aged 82 years. He was born in Virginia, but removed to Ohio when a boy. He graduated at Athens College, Ohio, and afterwards studied law at Lancaster, Ohio. He was elected to the Ohio Legislature in 1829, and was a member of that body for several years. He was elected to the United States Senate in 1850, and was re-elected in 1855. He was appointed Secretary of the Interior by President Taylor in 1849, and was also Secretary of War during the administration of President Harrison. He was a member of the Peace Congress in 1861, and was appointed brigadier-general of volunteers in 1862. He was in command of the Department of Kansas in 1863, when Quantrell made his raid on Lawrence, and issued the famous order No. 11, which was severely criticised at the time. He resigned from the army in 1865, and was appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Kansas in 1866, but declined the position. He was the father of Gen. Thomas Ewing, who married Gen. Sherman's daughter.

Death of Gen. Thomas L. Crittenden.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Gen. Thomas L. Crittenden died at his residence in this city at 2:30 o'clock this morning, aged 67 years. He was born in Kentucky, and graduated at West Point in 1839. He was brevetted major for gallantry in the battle of Monterey, during the Mexican war, and was also brevetted lieutenant-colonel for gallantry in the battle of Buena Vista. He resigned from the army in 1848, and was appointed Secretary of State of Kentucky in 1851. He was elected Governor of Kentucky in 1855, and was re-elected in 1859. He was appointed brigadier-general of volunteers in 1861, and was promoted major-general in 1862. He was in command of the Twenty-first Army Corps in the battle of Perryville, and was also in command of the Department of the Ohio in the battle of Chickamauga. He resigned from the army in 1864, and was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Second district of New York in 1869. He was appointed Postmaster of this city in 1870, and was removed by President Cleveland in 1885.

Death of Gen. Thomas Ewing, Jr.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Gen. Thomas Ewing, Jr., died at his residence in this city at 2:30 o'clock this morning, aged 67 years. He was born in Lancaster, Ohio, graduated at Yale College in 1837, and studied law at Lancaster. He was elected to the Ohio Legislature in 1840, and was a member of that body for several years. He was appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Kansas in 1861, and was elected Governor of that State in 1862. He was appointed brigadier-general of volunteers in 1863, and was promoted major-general in 1865. He was in command of the Department of Missouri in 1865, when he issued the famous order No. 10, which was severely criticised at the time. He resigned from the army in 1866, and was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Second district of New York in 1869. He was appointed Postmaster of this city in 1870, and was removed by President Cleveland in 1885.

Death of Gen. Thomas Ewing, Sr.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Gen. Thomas Ewing, Sr., died at his residence in this city at 2:30 o'clock this morning, aged 82 years. He was born in Virginia, but removed to Ohio when a boy. He graduated at Athens College, Ohio, and afterwards studied law at Lancaster, Ohio. He was elected to the Ohio Legislature in 1840, and was a member of that body for several years. He was appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Kansas in 1861, and was elected Governor of that State in 1862. He was appointed brigadier-general of volunteers in 1863, and was promoted major-general in 1865. He was in command of the Department of Missouri in 1865, when he issued the famous order No. 10, which was severely criticised at the time. He resigned from the army in 1866, and was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Second district of New York in 1869. He was appointed Postmaster of this city in 1870, and was removed by President Cleveland in 1885.

TENNESSEE STATE NEWS.

Death of Mrs. Emma S. Wisdom.

PARIS, Tenn., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Emma St. Harris, wife of Senator Isham G. Harris, died at her residence in this city at 11 o'clock to-day, in the sixty-fifth year of her age. She was a native of Virginia, and was married to Senator Harris in 1843. She was married July 5, 1877, to Dr. Wisdom, who survives her.

Later reports say that the deceased died of carbuncles with internal complications. She was a devout member of the Methodist Church, and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. She was the daughter of Maj. Edward Trigg, of Virginia, and was a sister of Gen. Trigg, who was killed in the battle of Jonesboro, Ga., in 1864, by the enemy and by his enemy, and by many warmly lamented friends.

Death of Dr. Fleming.

DR. D. Fleming, of Columbia, S., who was shot by a burglar in saving the health from the gallows, has been restored to health, and is now able to be out.

Death of Gen. Trigg.

Gen. Trigg, who was killed in the battle of the Wilderness, was born in Virginia, and was a graduate of West Point. He was appointed by the senate and by his enemy, and by many warmly lamented friends.

A Baby at Twelve.

Affairs at Columbia, on the west side of the Wilder number a few weeks ago. The Democrats have a majority of 1,000 in the county, and will be elected by a majority of 1,000 in the county, and will be elected by a majority of 1,000 in the county.

Death of Gen. Trigg.

Gen. Trigg, who was killed in the battle of the Wilderness, was born in Virginia, and was a graduate of West Point. He was appointed by the senate and by his enemy, and by many warmly lamented friends

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

A Greeting to the Countless Assembly Held at the Chapter.

By Force We Shall Be as We Were at the Beginning—Talmage's Text Was Taken from Genesis 1:2—"And the Darkness Was Upon the Face of the Deep."

BROOKLYN, Nov. 27.—Dr. Talmage took for his subject this morning "Darkness Upon the Face of the Deep," and his text was Genesis 1:2, "And the darkness was upon the face of the deep."

Introduction: Why extract that cliff and carry it to the valley? Because there is gold in the quartz. Why bring that rock from the mountain to the ocean-side? Because it is the material out of which the sea-wall is rebuilt for coast-guard protection. Since for the building of the world and the rebuilding of the world God used rock, when the Lebanons were to be hewn down for the temple, it was a text full of people, and David and Isaiah declared their faith, and Christ preached from it, and Peter and Paul and John, and all the ages of the world have been full of the sermons of the rock, the wagon of the generations and common carry. Why, then, should not I, my brother, choose that cliff, that Dragon Rock Mount Lebanon to the Christian world, that I may get out of it the material for my sermon? Because I want to dash up to you, dear Pagan in Africa, dear Pagan in Asia, dear Pagan in the islands of the sea, dear Pagan in all the earth, a message that was designed, But after 6 years, Dr. Talmage, you have not yet learned that God does not go about hurling thunderbolts, and the agent of the Most High is love? Yes, I have learned that, and I have learned it so well that I intended many days here before sea-sailing, that I would not preach a sermon ringing with the alarm of condemnation, but I would preach a sermon on the fear of love. Without warning, without preparation, I am here and I begin my sermon now.

Well, the Lebanons are all cut down and the timber is all in the water, and the raft is ready to be towed to the place of sea-wall logs, beginning ahead to the north and ending behind to the south. But after all the material was ready there remained still two terrible obstacles to overcome. The first was the mountain surf, which broke with such force that it would dash the logs to pieces, and the second was the sand-bar, which, as the tide went out, would leave the raft high and dry. Now, as long as logs of fine timber were to be had, and as long as a raft built by experienced men could be towed to the place of destination, and as long as there was a tide to float the raft over the sand-bar, the mountain surf and the sand-bar were no obstacle. But when all the timber was gone, when the last raft was towed to its place, when the tide went out and left the raft high and dry on the sand-bar, then the mountain surf and the sand-bar were obstacles indeed.

Now, my brethren, I am the timber of the sea-wall, and I am the raft, and I am the tide, and I am the mountain surf and the sand-bar. I am all these things, as long as hope of the final redemption of the world is based on a raft built by experienced men and towed back, as Joshua built, and it floated over the Jordan, by the tide of God's omnipotence, and I am the mountain surf and the sand-bar when the storm of the rocks comes down and the tide of God's omnipotence recedes and leaves the world high and dry. I must agree exactly with the position of the timber of the sea-wall, and the raft, and the tide, and the mountain surf and the sand-bar, or else I spoil the parallel. God grew in the forest of Lebanon, and I grew in the forest of sin. God was towed to the place of destination by the tide of omnipotence, and I was towed to the place of destination by the tide of God's omnipotence. God was the mountain surf, and I am the mountain surf. God was the sand-bar, and I am the sand-bar. Now, my brethren, I am not going to be a mountain surf and a sand-bar when the storm of the rocks comes down and the tide of God's omnipotence recedes and leaves the world high and dry. I am going to be a raft towed by the tide of God's omnipotence to the place of destination. Are you going to be a raft towed by the tide of God's omnipotence to the place of destination?

The Democrat.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT HUNTSVILLE, TEXAS.

J. A. SLOANE, Editor.
A. A. SLOANE, Local Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at Huntsville, Texas, as second class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

ONE YEAR $1.00
SIX MONTHS 50
THREE MONTHS 25

ADVERTISING RATES

FURNISHED ON APPLICATION. RATES
FOR LEGAL ADVERTISING ARE FIXED
BY LAW AND WILL BE STRICTLY ADHERED TO.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 1899.

SLOQUENT STATISTICS.

New York's new Democratic governor is the author of a book which he found it to be a matter of interest to write. Let us assume the issue of the book for a moment to have been the film of mercury on an ordinary looking glass. Let us assume that down to the last hours of the past we say three to have been the film of mercury on the left hands of the pastors. The Democratic governor is evidently an ardent propagandist as a gem. Governor of the literary monopolist, Governor of the Empire State, Governor Mark Hanna, Governor of the United States insofar as a governor of the United States and Governor Hanna. Going, when it comes to leaving the English language into the air, and to leave the rosier taxes on Mabel Barbee, Governor Hanna, Governor Hanna, Governor Hanna